Droning Planes—

Moffett Field assumed rank as the third largest air station in California last week when 58 powerful army aircraft thundered over their new home base and landed in the Sunnyvale field.

The entire 20th pursuit group from Barksdale, Louisiana, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Ross G. Hoyt, started landing operations. For more than a half hour the drone of the 56 pursuit ships and two army bombers was heard over the great hangar as plane after plane landed on the concrete runway.

Building Begins—

Construction of shops, offices, warehouses and ways and dredging of a channel, preliminary to the start of work on the $10,000,000 shipbuilding contract awarded the Western Pipe and Steel, was started in South San Francisco last week.

Held up for almost two weeks by labor disputes, the building program got underway following signing of a contract with the AFL Metal Trades council last week.

Filipinos Return—

Ninety-five per cent of the 400 striking Filipino sprouts pickers went back to work Saturday on 27 Pescadero ranches, according to the dictates of the owners' committee and closing the week-old strike.

While the Filipino workers were idle 150 imported Mexican pickers had formed a skeleton crew on the 27 ranches to harvest the ripened crops.

Tanforan Track Opens For 25-Day Fall Meet

Tanforan, cradle of modern California racing, ushered in its dayannual 25-day Fall meeting Tuesday, yesterday, when a crack field of sprinters tangled in the Opening Day Handicap at six furlongs.

The historic course, scene of many of the West's most stirring races, was in perfect shape for the opening. Horses have been galloping and training over the racing strip for a month, and trainers here for the first time, have joined in the nation-wide opinion that the Tanforan racing surface is easily the best cushioned and safest in America.

The track has been resurfaced and raised 12 inches on the outside to permit perfect drainage in case of rain. The fences and poles have been repainted and the entire track is spick and span.

The infield has been beautified and thousands of flowers have been planted in artistic designs.

Twelve hundred thoroughbreds—the pick of the horses which raced at Bay Meadows, plus Eastern stables just arriving—will be seen in action during the meeting. Many of America's best known riders, augmented by dozens of sparkling apprentice prospects, will don silks here.

The Lassie Stakes, which has an estimated value of $7,500, tops the stakes list from a monetary standpoint. This is fashioned for 2-year-old California-bred fillies at six furlongs and will be run November 25.

The complete stakes program includes:

Yerba Buena Handicap, purse $2,000, one mile, November 18.

Thanksgiving Handicap, purse $2,000, 1 1/4 miles, November 23.

Lassie Stakes, purse $5,000, six furlongs, November 25.

Golden Gate Handicap, purse $2,000, six furlongs, December 2.

A. B. Spreckles Handicap, purse $2,000, six furlongs, December 9.

San Francisco Handicap, purse $2,000, 1 1/16 miles, December 16.

J. W. Marchbank, directing owner of Tanforan, has appointed the same staff of officials who served here last season, and James F. Gallagher, widely known and respected official, heads the list as presiding steward. John Maluvis serves as racing secretary and Eddie Thomas will be the starter.

"Senior Citizen" Chooses Suicide

Despondency over the recent defeat of "Ham and Eggs" was blamed by friends today for the suicide here last week of Henry Brutt, 70-year-old "senior citizen."

Unable to work any longer because of failing health, Brutt had several times threatened to take his own life if the "30-Thursdays" scheme were defeated at the polls, according to acquaintances.

The aged man was found sitting in the front seat of an automobile in the basement of his home, 274 Irvington street, by a son-in-law, Frank Kenney. A rubber hose leading in through a window of the car from the exhaust pipe bore mute evidence of the tragedy.

Kenney told Daly City police that he and his mother-in-law had gone for a ride that afternoon, but that Brutt had refused to accompany them, saying that he would stay home with a book instead.

Rushed to a local hospital, Brutt was pronounced dead upon his arrival. Artificial respiration attempts all failed.

Funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon from the mortuary chapel of W. C. Lasswell and company, with interment at Olivet Memorial Park. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Minnie Brutt; a sister, Mrs. Edward Frey; five daughters, Mrs. Alice Wawren, Mrs. Madeleine Cole, Mrs. Helen Weiger, Mrs. Florence Kenney, and Mrs. Evelyn Anderson, and a son, Alfred Brutt.

Library Observes National Book Week

Daly City's library is observing National Book Week this week, with special displays arranged for the enjoyment of the public.

Especially charming and colorful is the display in the children's rooms, where this year's motto, "Books Around the World," has been made the motif of a bright array of children's books dealing with foreign lands.

City officials and the library staff extended a cordial invitation to the public to visit the library no wand avail themselves of its many services to the community.

RED CROSS LAUNCHES 1939 ROLL CALL

Local Committee
Sets Daly City Goal
At $500 Mark

Daly City residents have sixteen days left in which to fulfill their obligations to humanity and help those less fortunate than themselves, by answering the 1939 Red Cross Roll Call, now under way.

Last year Roll Call memberships amounted to $345, according to Mrs. Horace Fellows, 163 Vista Grande avenue, chairman of the local Roll Call. Daly City received more than twice that value in nursing service alone. Red Cross nurses made 823 visits in Daly City in 1938, 604 of which were free visits, 39 part paid and six fully paid. The balance were insurance calls.

"This year our goal is $500," Mrs. Fellows stated, "and we feel that every citizen will co-operate to help us reach our goal."

Working with Mrs. Fellows are Mrs. Martha Wegner, 399 Crocker avenue; Mrs. Mary Crane, 140 Woodrow street; Mrs. Violet Hauptli, 87 San Pedro avenue, and Mrs. Gerry Glanville.

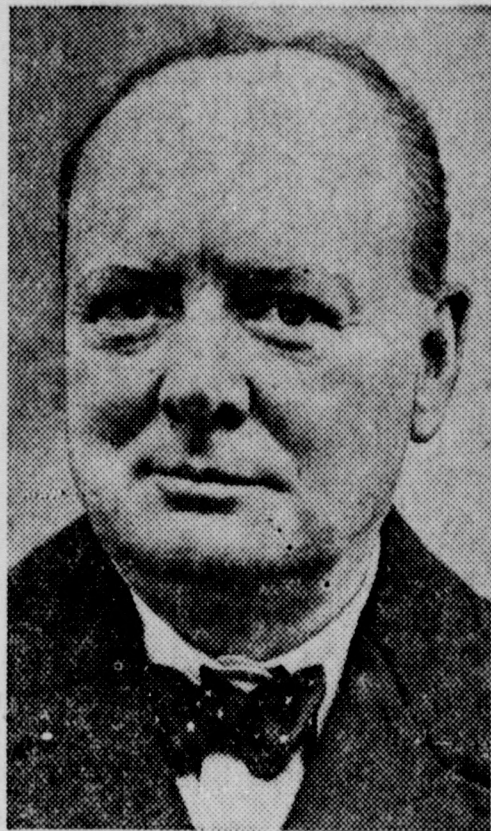

Plant Submits Building Plans

Plans for a $2500 building materials plant on Junipero Serra boulevard, south of Knowles avenue, were submitted to the city engineer's office last week.

Granting of the permit will depend upon re-zoning action by the council, according to Julius F. Castelan, city engineer. The matter is scheduled for discussion Friday evening.

Specifications call for 150-foot frontage. The plant proposes to handle building materials, hardware, sporting goods, contractors' equipment and electrical appliances.

First Lord Is 65

Just starting his official life anew as first lord of the British admiralty under a war appointment, popular Winston Churchill will take time off Thursday, November 30, to celebrate his sixty-fifth birthday. Having held the same post during the World war, Churchill came out of retirement to join Prime Minister Chamberlain's "national unity" cabinet.

The annual meeting of the San Mateo County Teachers association is scheduled for 10:50 a. m., with President Dorothy Jones presiding. Speaker for the next session will be F. J. McConville, principal of San Mateo high school and president of the San Mateo County tuberculosis association.

CITY COUNCIL STUDIES FIVE MAJOR ITEMS

Henry Sundermann
Acts as Chairman
In Mayor's Absence

Approval for installation of fire hydrants to give greater protection to new homes on Hillside boulevard, final reports from Daly City Day at the Fair committee, proposal to open discussions on rezoning portions of the city, discussion of annual community Christmas party for local children, and the announcement that new busses will arrive here from Detroit November 26. . . .

These and other items of city business were crowded into a rapid-fire council meeting Monday evening. Councilman Henry Sundermann acted as chairman of the board in the absence of Mayor Paul G. Selmi.

Arthur Bodien, water superintendent, proposed the installation of fire hydrants for greater protection for the 26 new homes recently completed along Hillside boulevard. Plans call for the extension of a six-inch main up Alp street. The council approved Bodien's proposal.

Final reports from Daly City Day at the Fair committee disclosed unqualified success of the occasion and showed a financial deficit of less than $100. For participation in this outstanding event of community promotion, acting Mayor Sundermann extended thanks to the general committee, all organizations, the schools, and public at large. He said that Daly City put on a show at Treasure Island of which every citizen could be justly proud.

The request by a building construction company to build a plant on Junipero Serra boulevard brought into open discussion the need for rezoning several sections of Daly City. Councilmen will survey the rezoning problem at an adjourned meeting Friday evening.

Action on a bid submitted for surfacing the tennis court in Brunswick-Acton park was likewise laid over till Friday evening. The council called for bids on resurfacing of Brunswick street from Templeton avenue to northern city limits.

The council purchased a lawn mower for new Vista Grande park. Also to be taken up at Friday's adjourned meeting will be specifications for the new dog pound to be located on city property near reservoir No. 3.

Plan Xmas Party For Local Kids

Civic officials and leaders, organizational representatives, and business men will meet next Monday evening at the city hall to discuss plans for Daly City's annual community Christmas party for local children.

H. G. King, who was chairman of Daly City's Day at the Fair, and Bruce Boynton, recreation department head, briefly outlined plans for the gala event at council meeting Monday evening.

It is proposed, as last year, to arrange the party as a Saturday afternoon matinee at the Daly City theater. All local children will be given free admission tickets. Committees will work up special entertainment features and provide gifts for the kiddies.

By special request, Daly City Community Players will present their three one-act comedies at the Laguna Honda home this Friday.

The three plays, sponsored by the local WPA Recreation department, were originally produced at Jefferson Union high school. Next appearance of the home-talent players will be on the stage of the Daly City theatre, Friday, December 1.

A new play, "Why Wives Worry," which runs on sophisticated lines and is full of humorous situations, is now being cast. Several of the best parts are as yet unfilled, according to Miss Marie Burton, director.

Community Players meet every Tuesday and Wednesday evening at Jefferson Union high school. Anyone interested in enrolling should contact the Recreation office, 101 Parkview avenue. There is no charge.

California Banks Extend Sound Credit

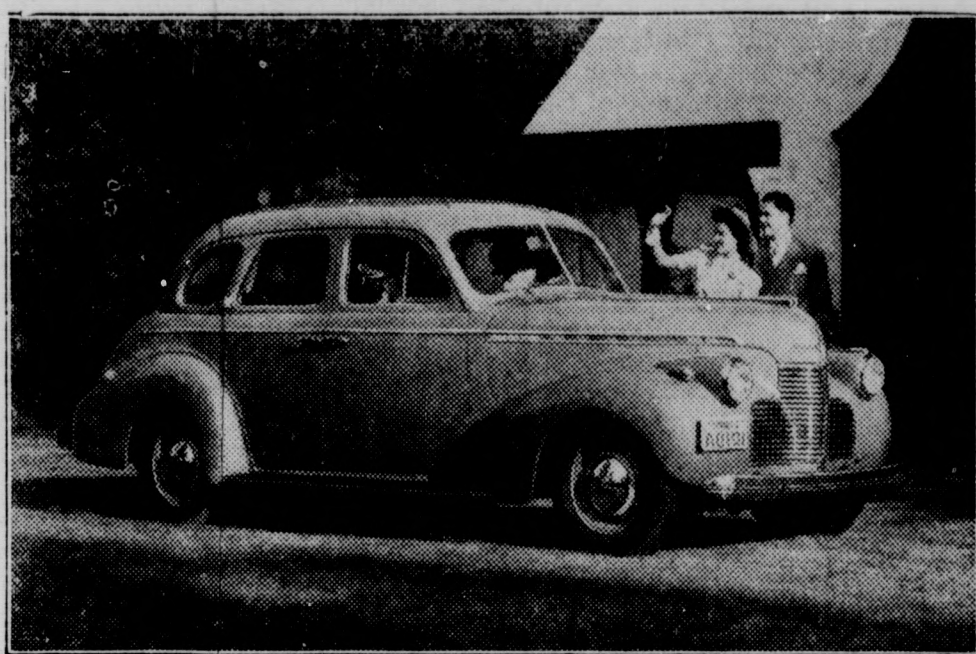

Vitalizing streams of money daily are being pumped through the arteries of commerce by the banks of the nation.

Figures supporting this fact also demonstrate the widely acknowledged leadership of the banks of California in promoting the extension of sound credit to worthy borrowers.

Statistics compiled for the American Bankers association reveal that more than two million dollars in new loans every working day in the year are being poured into business operations in California by one institution alone—Bank of America.

Bank of America's compilations show that in the first six months of 1939 its 495 branches in 307 California communities made a total of 277,906 new loans, aggregating $313,270,347. None of these were renewals of existing loans.

A splendid cast of character players—some of them stars in their own right—made the picture under the direction of Crane Wilbur, writer as well as director for Warner Brothers.

De Wolf Hopper, namesake son of the late stage comedian, plays a heroic courier who brings news of the outbreak of the Revolution at Lexington. Moroni Olsen is cast as Lord Dunmore, British Royal Governor of Virginia, and Lillian Kemble Cooper plays his wife.

Starting November 26, the Night Owls will hold an afternoon dance every second and fourth Sunday of the month, from 2 to 6 p. m.

Lunts In Comedy At Curran

Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne bring to town the "merriest and maddest masquerade ever devised" in the presentation of their own impish conception of Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew," at the Curran theater, San Francisco, for two weeks beginning Monday evening, November 13. Involved in the gay proceedings will be not only a score or more of good run of the mill Equity Actors, but any number of midgets, acrobats, horses (of a sort), hounds (of a kind), clowns, (dyed in the wool), singers, dancers and musicians, all offered in glittering habiliments and against a gorgeous, golden background.

Critics everywhere have voiced approval of this outrageous and audacious "Shrew," saying that those folk who never saw any fun in the Bard of Avon before are going to see it now—and how! The Lunts first produced a "Shrew" four years ago and it was hailed as having given good old Will Shakespeare a much needed "shot in the arm," but that was a mild "Shrew" compared with this 1939-

40 edition. The famous co-stars this time have gone the limit in "rough housing" the taming process. What a shrew! And what a man! They go at the business in hand with a robustious gusto that turns the evening into a gay and roystering harlequinade.

A cast, as extravagant as the production and the acting, has been provided. Among the distinguished participants are Richard Whorf, Sydney Greenstreet, S. Thomas Gomez, Albert Carroll, Allan Hewitt, Francis Compton and Edith King. These are but seven of sixty and the sixty are comedians all.

Mr. Lunt makes his entrance upon the most remarkable and richly-adorned horse that ever trod a stage. With a Simon Legree whip he lashes Miss Fontanne as no actress ever was cowhided before. As for the text of the play, there have been cuts but no changes. It is the outward flourishes given it by the stars, the frills and furbelows, that make this "Shrew" a thing apart from all others.

Jeffs Lose Game To South City, 6-0

Neither Jefferson nor South City walked off with outstanding honors in Saturday's game at South City, which ended with a score of 6-0 against the local boys.

The first and second quarters were played on the Indians' half of the field with Jefferson on the defensive, keeping South City at bay. The third was a tense quarter and the Indian cause looked lost when its opponents took to the air and started to click until Christen intercepted a pass and ran the ball to the forty-five yard line and out of danger. However, South City recovered a Jeff fumble and the quarter ended with the boys of South City on the Jeff's one-yard line.

Barbetti, S. S. F. fullback, gained a yard, and on the next play Jeff got the ball on a fumble. Giusti kicked to the thirty-yard line and the game was saved for the time.

With five minutes to play, Pasco intercepted a pass intended for Christen, lateralled to Galli, and Galli went over for the only score of the game. The attempt at conversion went wide.

The Indians missed their chance to tie, when with five yards to go for a score on the second down, they passed instead of plunging, lost the ball on a fumble, and the game was over.

Galli, Cortesi, Pasco and Barbetti showed to advantage for South City, with Poddig, Christen, Eldrup, Colombene, Giusti and Hertz playing a fair game for Jeff.

Seventh Installment

History of Daly City Fire Department

(Editor's Note: This is the sixth installment of an informal history of the Daly City Fire department, dedicated to "those who serve—not for personal gain—but for the welfare of all.")

Through the cooperation of William J. C. Goldkuhl, E. W. Goldkuhl sr., and Edward W. Goldkuhl jr., authors, and the Daly City Record this interesting story is made available to the general public.

Came the year 1914 and the election of H. H. Smith to the Board of Fire Commissioners. With the election of Mr. Smith, who had been a tireless worker in the Department, many new things were obtained by the Fire Department. Apparatus was constantly being changed, new features added and the trucks, which most companies owned at this time, were being continually overhauled to make their running more perfect.

These trucks, the property of the various companies, were mostly built and assembled by the individual companies, themselves. As an example, Number 2's truck engine came from a Locomobile touring car, while the chassis was built by the Department and sundry parts came from any other cars whose parts would contribute to a fire engine. With the addition of hose reels, fire extinguishers, a hand chemical or two, a few ladders, an ax of two, some half dozen fire hats and the sturdy willingness of its volunteer members, the truck was ready to roll at the sound of the alarm. The building of these trucks claimed many Sundays, holidays and nights from the volunteer members, and in those days the average working man's day consisted, in most cases, of a working time on his job of from ten to fourteen hours.

At the beginning of the next year, 1915, the appointment of H. H. Smith as Chief of the General Department was made; Commissioners included Mr. Kingsley, Julius Nelson was Captain of Number 2; A. J. Green, Captain of Number 3; George G. Augustien, Captain of Number 4, and Mr. Verbrugge, Captain of Number 5. Under these new officers, social activity of the Daly City Fire Department continued along its previous abundant line: dances, card parties, picnics and social events of all kinds were constantly being given by the Daly City Fire Department.

Nor was the idea of improvement yet forgotten, for on September 24, 1915, a committee of Stockton and Dryer and Brother Johnson was appointed by the Fire Department to draft a petition to circulate among property owners of Daly City seeking the installation of a blast alarm system. The efforts of this committee resulted in the start of the present alarm system now in service in Daly City.

Spencer Tracy Re-Enacts African Adventure

"Find Livingstone!"

Exactly 70 years ago this October 16, James Gordon Bennett barked these words at his crack reporter, Henry M. Stanley.

It was apparently the most hopeless assignment in all journalism. No one but a mad man would brave the terrors of unknown Africa to hunt for a missionary-explorer from whom no word had come in two years.

How Stanley found Livingstone, how the world called the newspaperman "the most colossal liar of his age," and how he later became the greatest hero of his era, is the story of the 20th Century-Fox picture, Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "Stanley and Livingstone." It opens tomorrow at the Daly City Theater.

Spencer Tracy, twice an Academy Award winner, portrays Stanley. Nancy Kelly, who rose into the front ranks of Movie-town with her role in "Jesse James," and Richard Greene, who in a year's time has become one of Hollywood's top romantic stars, are starred with Tracy. Another two-time Award winner, Walter Brennan, heads the outstanding cast which includes Charles Coburn, Sir Cedric Hardwicke (as Livingstone), Henry Hull and Henry Travers.

Companion feature on the new bill will be Oliver Hardy and Harry Langdon in "Zenobia."

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Williams and son, Arthur, 118 Peoria street, motored to San Jose, Sunday, to visit friends.

Norway's Platinum Fox

One of Norway's rare animals is the platinum fox. It can best be seen as pelt in the fine shops of Oslo. The platinum fox is a mutation of the silver. Only some 300 pairs of it are now in existence and its pelts are among the most valuable of all furs. While Norway has few of it, the country has more than 20,000 silver fox farms and is the leading land of Europe in producing these pelts.
